HISTORY OF PHARMACY ACT In India there was no restriction to practise the profession of Pharmacy.

>One could practise this profession as any other profession.

Persons, having no knowledge and having no education in pharmacy or pharmaceutical chemistry or pharmacology, were engaged in this profession.

Hundreds of cases were found by Government wherein the compounding, mixing, or dispensing of medicines was being done by persons who were not adequately educated in this line.

These causing great harm to the health of people.

➢ It was found necessary to enact a law for the regulation of the profession and practice of pharmacy.

➤To achieve this goal the Pharmacy Bill, 1947 was introduced in the Legislature which was later referred to the Select Committee.

The recommendations of the Selection Committee were incorporated in the Bill.
